Randy, Thanks for the encouraging report. He should not sign anything that is not reviewed by Joel and me. John

Guys, we had a very productive, solid meeting with Kenny, Dr. Murray, MJ, and myself. The doctor was fantastic and I think Kenny's hysteria will be in check while MJ was alert and attentive. We have all agreed on a schedule that works for both KO and MJ. I promised Kenny I would office out of Staples next week during rehearsals. Let's pray MJ engages and also starts to work out and eat.

On another matter, Joe Jackson and Leonard Rowe are going to try to get MJ to sign a contract with the flotsam from New Jersey (Allgood Ent.) for the Jackson Family Reunion ppv. I explained to M,J who may be willing to do something with the family in the future, but not now. I told him to defer to Joel and John and absolutely not sign anything. It is a bad situation because these people are very litigious and Joe is very stupid. They could interfere with MJ's ppv and which is much more valuable than one with the brothers if we can get him to do a ppv from London.

Anyway, things are not as bleak as Kenny's emails. John, now is not the right time to introduce a new person into his life.

I love my Wednesday mornings as well :-)

Now the real problem is about the other e mails you sent. I'm available any time

I am at dinner with your client Benny Medina. He just told me how much he loves your Wednesday morning joust. Is he still getting Fresh Prince royalties?

Nothing good can come from Michael having any business relationship not approved by this team with Joe Jackson. He needs to take care of himself first before he can help his family, especially the ppv. I'm headed to Mexico this morning for the week reachable on the cell and via email. Joel and I are scheduled to speak tomorrow.
